Munder Sr. Investment Manager New Head of COTS Board
Ina G. Fernandez Assumes Presidency For 2008

Detroit, MI January 9, 2008 – Detroit’s Coalition On Temporary Shelter (COTS) announces Ina G. Fernandez, Munder Capital Management Senior Investment Manager, as their new Board President. Fernandez is no stranger to COTS, having been a long term Board member and closely involved with several of COTS major fundraising initiatives in the past.

At Munder, Fernandez has led the Charitable Investment Services Group, which works closely with foundation and endowment relationships. Ina specializes in “socially responsible” investing, and stays involved in the community and her church. She is past Chair of Inforum and is currently on the Boards of the Detroit Public Library Foundation and the Michigan Non-Profit Housing Corporation.

Fernandez replaces outgoing president Mark Borin, partner, KPMG LLP.

Of the COTS cause, Fernandez says: “What drew me to COTS and keeps me there, is the absolute dedication of the COTS staff and volunteers to ending the cycle of homelessness. The many success stories tug at your heart and leave you with a feeling of joy and accomplishment.”
